

It must have fallen from the ceiling , seemed more reasonable cause I seen those worms before , at the top of the cafeteria and made some very disgusting thoughts about the food that I was ready to eat. An upsetting feeling came upon me as I am writing now , just remembered the story about those kind of worms that I heard somewhere - lately it makes me sad to think of the things , people, words that I forgot , couldn't remember where , could remember that these are the ones that decompose anything , could remember that these are the ones that decompose anything including flesh.

I st have fallen from the ceiling , seemed more reasonable cause I seen those worms before , at the top of the cafeteria and made some very disgusting thoughts about the food that I was ready to eat. An upsetting feeling came upon me as I am writing now , just remembered the story about those kind of worms that I heard somewhere - lately it makes me sad to think of the things , people, words that I forgot , couldn't remember where , could remember that these are the ones that decompose anything , could remember that these are the ones that decompose anything including flesh.